

MUD Music Council presents

Ulladulla Earth Live Gathering (Friends of Live Earth)

7th day of the 7th month of the 7th year - it's time to do everything we can.

This Saturday, July 7, more than 2 billion people world wide will join together to be a part of the Live Earth concerts and events in a symbolic demonstration to local and world leaders that the time has come to solve the climate crisis.

MUD Music Council has organised the Ulladulla Earth Live Gathering, an official part of the global initiative, adding to the growing number of Australian communities demanding greater efforts to bring into balance our impact on the planet.

Unite for a glass of wine as the sun sets on the water - Harbourside elegance for a better world.

The Harbourside Restaurant & Espresso Bar will be the venue for the Ulladulla Live Earth Gathering which will run from 4.00pm to 6.00pm on Saturday. As a fully licensed venue you will be able to enjoy food and wine as you listen. Stay on for dinner following the event.

"On the 7th day of the 7th month of the 7th year, are there 77 locals who care enough about the planet to ensure our community is part of this historic event?" challenged Tina Broad of the MUD Music Council.

Local Live Earth events in other major centres are happening simultaneously around the globe - London, New York, Sydney, Johannesburg, Rio de Janeiro, Shanghai, and Tokyo.

The Ulladulla Earth Live Gathering, will feature acoustic sets from hamish of BROTHER; Treedad; the drums of Joseph; and singer-songwriter, Trent Hamilton. Guest speakers include marine ecologist, Pia Winberg; artist, Noel Butler and wellness campaigner, Cheryl Prout. A multi media presentation from surf and coastal photographer, Peter Simons, will also feature.

"My research has taken me to the very beginning of the food chain - to the smallest of creatures with the greatest importance", explained Ms Winberg. "It is vital for us all at this time to look at how we fit into the big picture on the planet."

"Being there. Being a part of it. Our lore is based on one thing - that everything is connected," Noel Butler will talk about the essence of the Aboriginal relationship with the earth.

Register to be part of the Ulladulla Earth Live Gathering as venue capacity is limited:
