

Mongrel

January, 2006

G'day everyone.

So with 2006 barely begun, what's brewing in BROTHER land?

Compilation CD

We thought it was a simple request. Give us your top three song choices for a compilation CD and tell us a little about what those songs mean to you. Reading through all your emails has been quite an experience, and taken some time. Thank you to all of you for your heartfelt and unique responses. Many will appear on the album. The songs chosen will simply be those most requested by you and span Pipe Dreams through I You You Me.

2 Chairs and 1 Tree (Your Backyard and

Theatre Show

We're ready to do it all again next month at the funky little theatre in Studio City, California. 'The terrain around here is far too dangerous...' returns for three shows and three days - February 24, 25, and 26. As those of you who were part of the theatre shows in December know, no two shows are quite alike. The challenge of presenting the music with so many other visual elements has opened up a new world to us, one we first ventured

Egypt & France

The band has never played Europe though we've been pushing at it for the last few years. When longtime BROTHER fan and entertainment

This Way Up) - "My husband and I fell in love in 1998, right when Your Backyard came out, and that song really speaks to me and how we feel about each other." - Nanette Visual graphics wiz, Jeff Sauers is once again creating magic for the CD artwork. Pre-sales will begin any day now. Keep an eye out on BROTHERmusic.com and your email.

We think you'll be pleased.

into with the DVD. Work on the next evolution of the show begins now.

Tickets will go on sale soon. Once again BROTHER travel expert Lizzy Shook at Worldwide Travel will take care of those of you coming from other parts of the country. Watch BROTHERmusic.com and your email for details. All December performances sold out quickly.

attorney, Laurence Benamou, returned to her home in Paris after working in LA for a few years, we all decided to work together to get the band to France. Well after a couple of 'almosts' it is finally happening. So at the end of March BROTHER will head to Paris for 3 dates at the notorious Sentre de Halles. Already we have word that a number of the BRO family are intending on being there.

As in Australia last year, our plan is to create enough buzz to give ourselves something to build on and return to.

All things being equal we will then head on to...Egypt. With the connection of the bagpipes (they actually originated on the Sumerian Plain, now Iraq) and other middle Eastern sensibilities in our music - particularly Pax Romana MMV - we figure we just have to get to that neck of the woods. Gotta live our life...

In our backyard with Your Backyard producer, Dave Dale

What else?? Much more on the way but that's for another time. Meanwhile look after each other and we'll do the same.

love youse

hamish, angus, dalbo
BROTHER

www.BROTHERmusic.com